

I am very much concerned about the possibility of cell phone use on commercial aircraft. This would open the door to communications to possible terrorists which is a grave security breach. The safety of our US airways is too important to be compromised under any circumstances. Please do not allow the use of cell phones on our aircraft. Thank you. Connie Maltin